

Informational Interviews: The Art of Speed Networking

EHL is pleased to invite all new health leaders for an evening of fun, food, professional development and networking.

Date: April 29, 2009

Time: 5 to 7pm

Relish Lounge
888 Nelson St.
(between Hornby & Howe)

Come sharpen your skills in the art of informational interviews while you get to know some of your fellow emerging health leaders.

What to expect:

- We will start the evening by learning about the secrets behind a successful informational interview with Eda Karacabeyli, a fellow EHL member, working at BC Health Services, an organization that has provided human resources consulting services to small, medium and large health care organizations over the past 20 years.
- We will then apply these skills in a comfortable and casual environment as we get to know each other!

~ Don't forget your business cards! ~

Appetizers will be provided **

RSVP by April 24th: EHLVancouver@emerginghealthleaders.ca

In partnership with:

Come and win! BCHS will be providing one randomly selected EHL attendee with a free career tune-up.

What is a career tune-up? From where to look for a job to how to land your dream position; a tune-up can include informational interview advising, resume revision, job search strategies and industry information. For more information visit www.bchs.bc.ca
